

Book cognition (a basic journey and a journey for experts)

Starting point – Republic Square, The Information Centre of City Pilsen, next to the Pilsen City Hall.

A: A basic journey: Cross Republic Square to ulice (street) Bedřicha Smetany – a house with memorial plaque commemorating the first known printing house in Pilsen, the corner of Bedřicha Smetany and Bezručova (No. 143/9) – Knihovna města Plzně (Library of the City of Pilsen), on ulice Bedřicha Smetany – The Education and Research Library of the Pilsener Region, in the park Smetanovy sady – the Art Nouveau library of the West Bohemia Museum (the Gardens of Kopeckého sady no. 2) – The Pilsen Historical Underground (Perlova ulice (street), exhibition of letterprint)

B: For demanding experts: from Republic Square to the park sady 5. května , a former reading room in the garden of the Marriott Hotel (house on an old Baroque bastion) – Pilsen printing house from the nineteenth century, corner of Dominikánská and Republic Square (near the town hall) – house of Jan Franta, author of Frantova práva (Francis's Rights), Solní ulice (street) no. 253 (across from the main post office) – Republic Square, house of a printer Jan Fencl Mantuán bearing no. 135/21 (near the NAVA bookstore) – ulice Bedřicha Smetany – house at the corner of ulice Bedřicha Smetany and Bezručova (no. 143/9) – Knihovna města Plzně (The Library of the City of Pilsen), ulice Bedřicha Smetany – The Education and Research Library of the Pilsener Region, the gardens Smetanovy sady – the Františkanský klášter (Franciscan monastery) (now the Diecézní muzeum - Diocesan Museum)) – pavilonek Sál přátelství, Lochotínský pavilonek (near a stop of tram no. 4, across from the Lékařská fakulta (School of Medicine), path to the Pilsen ZOO).